

FOURTH ACT PRODUCTIONS
PRESENTS

NAME THE NIGHT

A COLLECTION OF SHORT
PLAYS

NOV. 18TH, 19TH & 20TH
AT ALAMO CITY STUDIOS

BEHIND THE NAME

"The fourth act sort of makes or breaks a show. They used to call it the 'Sensation Scene' - because the idea is to overwhelm your audience's senses, to the end of building the truest illusion of reality... to make people think, for just a second, that what they're seeing is real and dangerous and sort of novel."

-AN OCTOROON, Branden Jacobs-Jenkins

Our purpose is to create one-of-a-kind evenings shared by a group of people, both onstage and off.

To live through something together.

To illuminate the human experience.

To put the community back in community theatre.

As for who we serve, well that's easy; you, the playwright, and the gods.

-not necessarily in that order.

We aim not to impress you, but to move you; to stir you.

Theatre has been dark for so long.

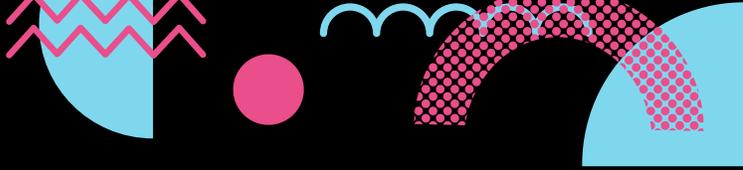

But we see the light at the end of this pandemic-tunnel.

Join us in rekindling the flame that we should have more carefully protected before.

We hope you enjoy the experience!

-the fourth act team

BIOS

Alvin McCray (DAD) is staging his comeback from being absent for nearly 15 years from performing. He is “reclaiming his time” and vows never to look back. Alvin dedicates this performance and all others to come to Edyn, Roman, and Jason, who gives him a reason to try and the runway to fly again.

Ashtyn Sonner (Stage Manager) Abandoned as a pup, Ashtyn spent her formative years mastering those precious things found only in nature, like wolf calls, de-boning freshwater bluejays and finding your Inner Self. She is absolutely thrilled to be a part of this amazing production, and would like to thank the cast/crew for their fantastic work and dedication. Finally, Ashtyn would like to thank her parents (sorry about that abandonment lie above), Batman, and all you lovely folks for supporting local theatre. Love ya, Papa Bear!

BIOS CONT'D

Bryan Powell (Playwright, Director, FRADY) is extremely excited to share his first play as a writer/director as well as acting in another; he was quickly welcomed by Fourth Act Productions with open arms and is happy to have a home here. He hopes you enjoy the show and is excited to put on many more!

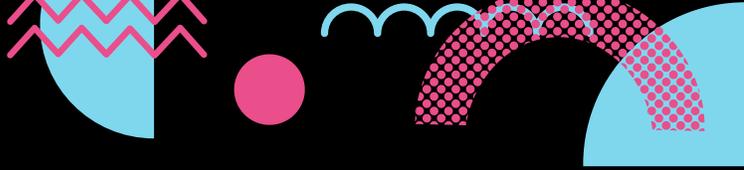

Chris Ziarr Banks (MORIE) is an upcoming actor and model. Born and raised in Delaware. He has always had an interested in pursuing filmmaking. His Roles have reached the big screen and his talents don't stray away from his passion of writing. He currently attends schooling at the Art Institute of San Antonio, to enrich his craft. He is best known for his roles in, "Pay up", "Wrong Move", "The Cure", and "Black - the short film".

Making his first theatre debut in pkay as Morie in "out of the box".

Christian Njus (Audio & Visual Designer) is excited to see all the great talent assembled for this production! He wants to thank all the people that he's met and given him this opportunity to perform on stage! He hopes everyone enjoys the show!

Christian Parrish (Tech Designer) This is Christian's third production with Fourth Act, and he has enjoyed every minute spent with this family of San Antonio talent. The enthusiasm to bring forth new art in a space with so much love and dedication is shared between all of the actors/writers/directors and production staff. He is greatly appreciative of the opportunity to work with these incredible people and knows you all will love them as much as he does.

Debra Elana (DR. OBER) is a former school teacher turned full time Singer Songwriter. She sings at churches and various events in the South Texas area and has several songs available on all digital streaming platforms. Debra Elana's stage debut was in Ennis Public Theatre's 2018 production of Little Shop of Horrors. She is thrilled to join the Fourth Act family for Name the Night and hopes to do more live theatre in the future.

Deerra Hill (Director) was born in Anchorage Alaska. And move around state to state as a military child. Eventually finding a home in San Antonio, Texas, Deerra has always been inspired when it came to making short movies or performances. Starting with just a point and shoot Toshiba camera in the early 2000s, She was creating stories that would guide her during her Career as a filmmaker. She received training from the Art Institute of San Antonio, however her ambition allows you to think she was self taught. Always wanting to do more and learn more. This ambitious female is the sole proprietor of Dirty Rug Productions, she is known for The Wrong Move and The Cure series. Deerra specializes in audio engineering and scriptwriting. The most recent work known for writing is Grateful Poison 2019. Now she is taking the theatre world by storm directing her first play “Out of the Box” an original play written by Marquess Deese.

Gary Cooper (was gonna be an actor in this but his baby daughter decided to grace the world with her presenche a bit early, so he's doing video for us instead)

Hannah Elizabeth Nunez (GAL) does not consider herself an actor, but was cool with jumping in to play Gal. She hopes that you, the audience member, can see the heart behind these shows...The time & dedication that each person has given over to this process, as low-budget as it may seem. And even more so, she hopes that you will believe in our small company of actors & writers, & want to support our future shows

Jennifer Park Kim (ALESON) woke up from her acting slumber when Fourth Act serendipitously sent her an invite. She's excited to return on stage and tell stories again. She'd like to thank her hubby Jason who not only led her to San Antonio but also unconditionally supported her acting stints from the very beginning. She sends her bountiful hugs and kisses to him. <3

Joanna Williams, don't ask her about Star Wars or D&D unless you have 5 hours to kill. Graduated UIW with a bachelors of fine arts in Theatre. "I don't want my life to imitate art, I want my life to be art." -Carrie Fisher

Joe Cooley (Stage Manager, GUARD) would like to thank everyone for coming out and supporting our production, Name The Night!

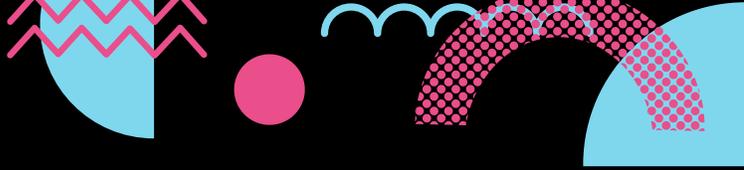

Justin Myers (Tech Director) has a dog named Milo.

Kellen List (WALTER) is very honored to work with Fourth Act Productions and to be on stage for the first time in a long time! He is proud to have met all the awesome people involved in the production. He can't wait to make the audience laugh and smile!

Laura Delhauer is a graduate of NYC's Circle in the Square theatre conservatory. In 2017 she created 'HI MOM!' Monologues from the Characters of Climate Change, a living, breathing, and ever evolving theatre piece, empowering playwrights to amplify the countless individual stories within the complex conversation of environmental crises we currently face. For more on this project or to get involved visit lauradelhauer.com Huge thanks to Seth and Hannah for being such wonderful people.

BIOS CON'T

Lauren Sattler is grateful to be taking the stage for the first time, in a play that will undoubtedly have the audience in stitches. She would like to thank her husband, Matt, for supporting her in this new endeavor, as well as her friends that are coming out to support her. She hopes you enjoy the show!

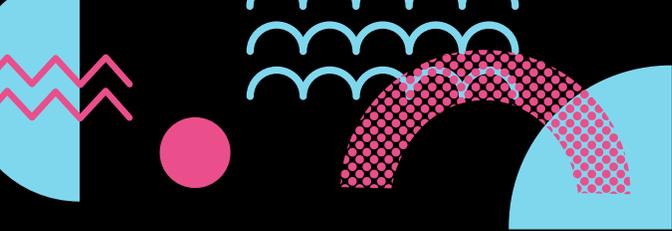

Mahalia Dinglasan (Director, DANI) would like to thank Fourth Act productions for providing the opportunity to direct with local San Antonio artists. What a joyful learning experience working with such talented and energetic humans! Raised in San Antonio, Mahalia loves contributing to the local theatre scene and looks forward to the next Fourth Act project.

Marie Nicole Galvin(DAUGHTER) grew up with a passion for acting in high-school, wanting to be a Broadway actress at a young age due to her father playing guitar in musical Broadway's her whole life. This is her first live theatrical performance and she's excited to start it with lifelong friend and director Bryan Powell!

Marquese Deese (Playwright) Traditionally a screenwriter/director, The Artist Formerly Known as Marquese is semi-excited to share his ever-written play with the theater world. He would like to take another opportunity to thank Seth for guilt-tripping him into writing this play. He holds no ill will towards Fourth Act Productions Productions or anyone else involved. Cheers.

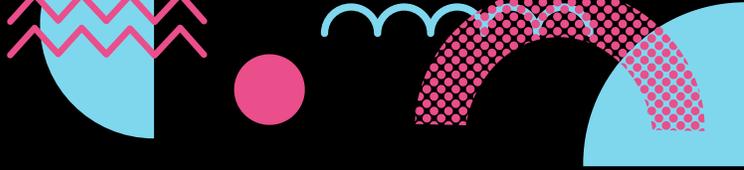

Oscar Salazar (SECRETARY, CERSIUS) While he has worked on feature and short films, this is Oscar's debut in the theatre world! Since pursuing acting a few years ago, Oscar has found his passion and plans to continue acting in all of its capacities. Oscar is always looking for ways to collaborate with others in the industry and is actively taking classes to improve his craft. Stay tuned because you might just see him on your tv screens!

Reed Arnold (Playwright) is a New York City based writer and actor who was born and raised in Oklahoma City. His plays have been staged in L.A. and New York, and a feature film he wrote is in pre-production with Votiv films. He likes abstract mathematics, discussions of the morally fraught, Coca-Cola, and Chipotle. He hates writing.

Ryan Webster (SON), is extremely excited to be joining the cast of Divorce-iversary. A San Antonio-based actor, Ryan has been involved in multiple short films and looks forward to collaborating with Fourth Act in the future. He also has a dog named Dude.

Seth Andrew Miller (Playwright, Director, CRAIG) is thrilled to be joining forces with Kerry, Marco, and Alamo City Studios for their first-ever live, theatrical production! He'd like to thank Hannah for keeping him focused, alive, and motivated throughout this hurricane called life. He'd like to thank Joe Cooley and Justin Myers for making this show possible and he'd also like to thank YOU. You, yes you, the person reading this. You made a choice to be here. Now. That means the world. That means everything. You are the ultimate scene partner tonight. Enjoy the experience!

Travis Charitan (Playwright, Director, JOHNNY, TUCKER) has enjoyed the opportunity to write, direct, and act in this production, alongside such talented and driven artists. He eagerly anticipates Fourth Act's next endeavor as we continue to bring original works to the local stage.

BIOS CONT

Tyler Keyes (Playwright) Tyler is an actor, director, and teacher who recently left the Texas heat for the beautiful state of Vermont. He is incredibly grateful for the friendship and support of the entire Fourth Act family. Although he won't get to see the production in person, he's sending the best wishes (and heartfelt thanks) to the whole cast and crew for bringing Including Moderation to life. Tyler would like to dedicate the show to the great Ober Tyus. Break Luck, everyone!

Tyra Brown (ROSCA) is an aspiring actress ready to take the stage. She is looking forward to showing off her skills as a storyteller. She is enthusiastic about working with the Fourth Act Company in the future and pursuing her dreams as an artist.
